Safeguarding

Criminal Convictions and References

Railway Children Africa is committed to providing a safe and trusted environment and to safeguarding anyone who comes into contact with our work. We implement a range of policies to ensure that we only employ people suitable to work with vulnerable groups and who are prepared to work in line with the high standards of personal conduct we expect.

In line with verifying these standards, job offers are subject to receipt of references satisfactory to Railway Children Africa and you will be required to undertake a certificate of good conduct (Police Check).

Any post that involves directly working with children will not be exempt from the provisions of Tanzania Panel Code act no 16 of 2015, Law of the Child of 2009, and Employment and Labour Act No.6 of 2004 as amended which means that spent convictions must be disclosed and will be considered in deciding whether to make an appointment. In addition to a police check, you will be asked to sign a self-declaration regarding your criminal record post-interview.

References

- Your referees should include one from your most recent employer and be completed by a senior person with the appropriate authority e.g. your line manager, senior manager or HR manager, not a colleague or peer.
- Both referees should be able to comment on your professional skills/experience and must be able to provide a reference on behalf of an organisation, not in a personal capacity.
- We will not make contact with your referees until an offer of employment has been made.
- Your references should cover your previous four years' employment. If you have worked for more than two employers during this period, please provide details of additional references on page 10.
